

Our Core Values

We care about and advocate for children with heart disease, their families, caregivers and communities.

We are resourceful and creative, continuously learning and improving.

We hold ourselves to the highest standard of quality in our work.

We demonstrate respect and integrity in our actions.

We are one team. We collaborate and use our combined skills and strengths to share ideas and solve problems.